I.B.M. CELEBRATES ENTREPRENEURSHIP DAY

"THE SECRET OF GETTING AHEAD IS GETTING STARTED"

-MARK TWAIN

This year the Institute of Business Management (I.B.M.) of Manuel V. Gallego Foundation Colleges, Inc., held its first Entrepreneurs' Day on November 28, 2022, from 8:00 am to 4:00 pm at the M.V.G.F.C. Gymnasium. The effort of I.B.M. showcased business students' knowledge, skills, and strategies to sell their goods and services.

The program formally started with a prayer and a ribbon-cutting ceremony with I.B.M. Faculty, B.S.O. officer, Board of Judges, and representatives. Then, Ms. Estenily Peralta, Executive Officer to the President, gave her opening remarks, followed by Ms. Rosalyn Bilog, Director for Instruction, who gave an inspirational message. Students who participated in the said program sold/ had various products that MVGFC community members purchased during the program. The following are their booths' names with each leader: Grill Hub and Thirty Third (Randel Maru Yamson), Borger Sa'kin (Kenneth Garcia), Xio-mi Rice (Jeremie Almirol), Wrapper Corner (Jecela Bacho), Nacheelicious (Efraim Patricio), Sweeti-con (Jocelle Capingan), and Saba-con (Aira Pantry).

Entrepreneurs' Day became successful with the help of the teachers and students involved in this course. I.B.M. thought that it was a significant activity that helped promote students' talent and entrepreneurial skills. Apart from being able to show off their skills, many students were satisfied and happy with this program because of the different foods they could buy, therefore, IBM committed to holding the event annually as part of the traditional celebration of the institute.

I.N.A.H.S. Conducts 61st Capping, Pinning, and Candle Lighting Ceremony

The capping and pinning ceremony indicates the welcoming of the nursing students into the world of nursing. The candle lighting came from the founder of modern nursing, Florence Nightingale, who also symbolizes hope for love and marks that they accepted the challenges brought by their chosen profession.

The Institute of Nursing Allied Health and Sciences (I.N.A.H.S.) of Manuel V. Gallego Foundation, Inc., held its 61st Capping, Pinning, and Candle lighting ceremony at the M.V.G.F.C. Gym last December 2022. The 2nd year nursing students, their parents, administrators, and faculty members of the I.N.A.H.S. Department attended the event.

Dr. Joseph L. Gallego, M.V.G.F.C. President, led the opening remarks and welcomed all the nursing students and attendees of the ceremony. The event was made memorable by the presence of Dr. Rodolfo C. Borromeo as Guest Speaker, while Mr. Raymundo P. Abello, faculty of the I.N.A.H.S. Department, led the closing remarks.

M.V.G.F.C. HOLDS FIRST ADVENT TREE LIGHTING

The Manuel V. Gallego Foundation Colleges, Inc. celebrated Christmas a few days early through its first Advent Tree Lighting Ceremony held at the M.V.G.F.C. quadrangle last December 15, 2022.

The lighting ceremony started at 5:00 pm with the opening remarks of M.V.G.F.C. President Dr. Joseph L. Gallego, the High School Principal, and all the Deans from their respective departments gave their fruitful message and greeted everyone a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. Ms. Deseree Padilla, the Marketing Officer of the School, spearheaded the event.

The M.V.G.F.C. Band Ambassadors and Ms. Lovelyn Guiang of the I.T.E. department entertained all the teachers and students who attended the event with selected songs. The Christmas tree lighting ceremony of M.V.G.F.C. ended with the warmth and joy of Christmas and created a memorable experience for everyone in the season of love and happiness.
